Kindergarten Orientation

It's been wonderful meeting the new students and families joining Berowra Public School next year. This week marks our final orientation session, and the teachers and I have been so impressed with the students' maturity, behavior, and enthusiasm. Not a tear in sight—they're more than ready for "big school!"

Updated 2025 Start Dates

Last week, we received updated start dates for students. Under the recently negotiated award, teachers will participate in four Staff Development Days at the start of Term 1. As a result, all students, including Kindergarten, will begin on Thursday, 6th February 2025. Additional Staff Development Days have also been scheduled throughout the year. Download the 2025 calendar to help you plan ahead. Calendar 2025.

New School Signage

You may have noticed some new signs around our school. We've added a large sign at the front gate, an Acknowledgement of Country sign, and a "Welcome to Berowra Public School" sign in the front office. If you attended Grandparents Day, you may have also spotted our beautiful new lectern sign.

Absence Notifications

Thank you to all our families who have been using the SMS absence system effectively. This has greatly reduced unexplained absences and lightened the administrative load for our staff. We're aiming for zero unexplained absences—please help us reach this goal by promptly replying to SMS messages with the reason for any absence.

Planning for 2025

We're currently planning our 2025 classes and staffing, a complex process where your input is invaluable. If you're moving over the holidays, switching schools, or planning an extended holiday that may affect your child's return on the first day of Term 1, please let us know as soon as possible. Our funding depends on student numbers, and each student counts as we decide between 10 or 11 classes. If you know anyone moving into the area, please encourage them to contact the school. New changes to the enrolment policy starting in Term 1, 2025, offer more flexibility, especially for out-of-area families with siblings already enrolled. For more details, please check the Department's explanatory fact sheet or give us a call to discuss your situation.

Changes to the enrolment policy

Students coming to school early

Just a reminder that there is no staff supervision of students before the bell at 8:50am. If students do arrive before that they are required to sit on the silver seats outside Theircare.

I hope to see you all at the P&C Spring Fair next Saturday, 16th November!

PAPER CRANES

ELIZABETH BECKEDAHL
Berowra Public School
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

My class have been making paper cranes in response to a wonderful book by Eleanor Coerr called Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes. Look how tiny the paper cranes on this page are!

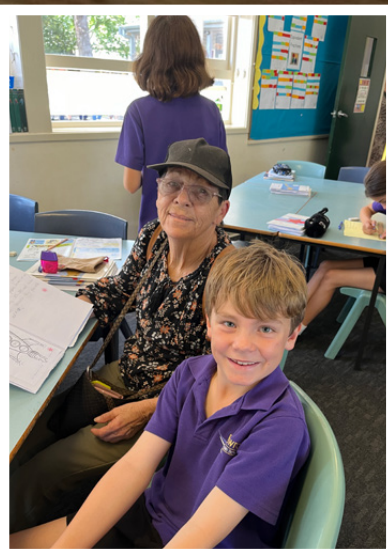

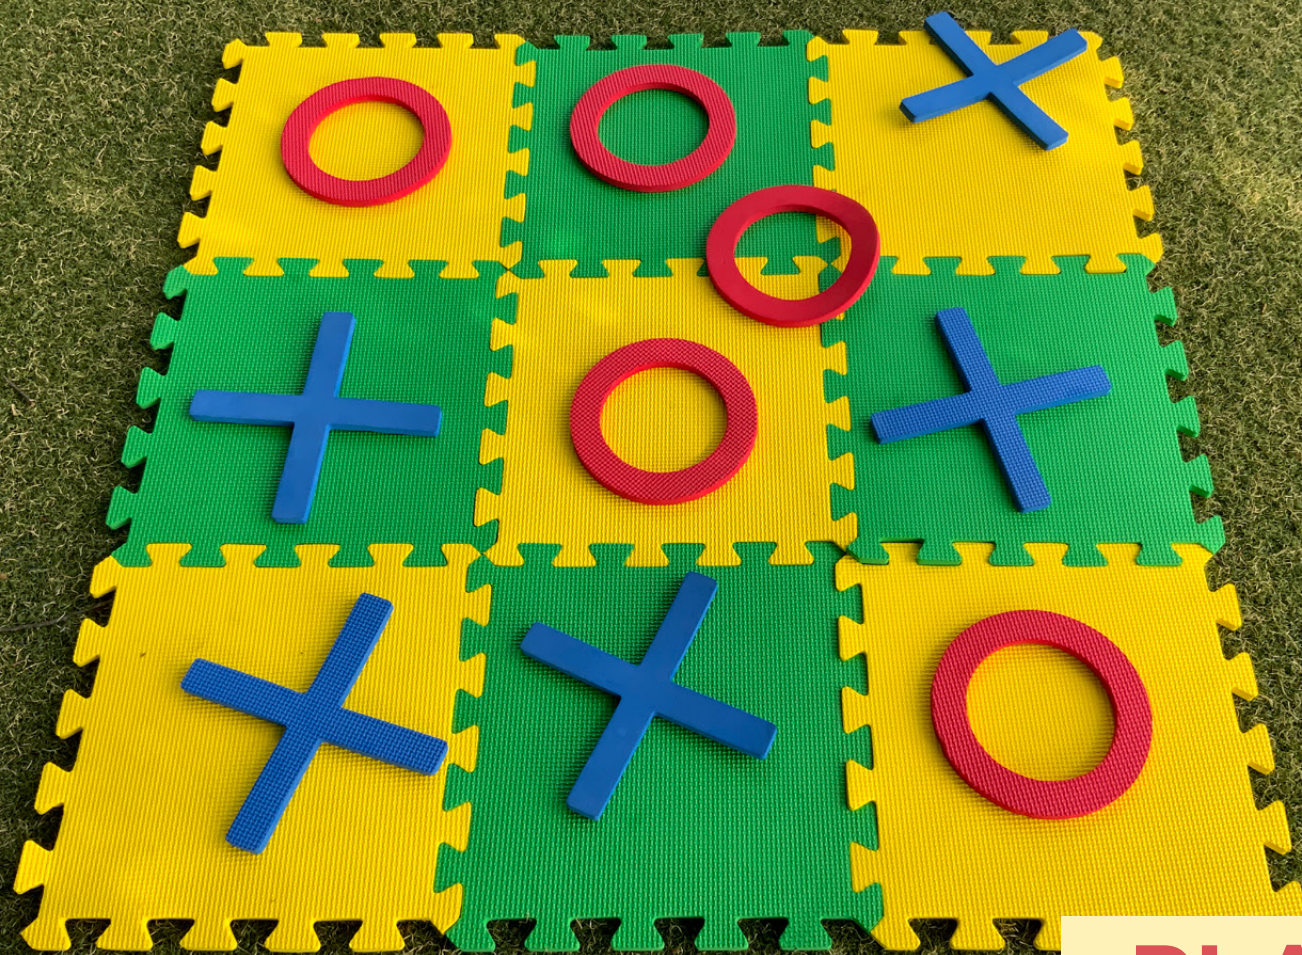

GRANDPARENTS AND FRIENDS DAY

On Thursday October 31, BPS invited grandparents and friends to special day. We all enjoyed the bands, choirs and kinder dance. The winners of our stage speaking competition also spoke. The visitors came to our classrooms to look at our work and played outdoor games. Thank you for coming to our Grandparents and Friends Day. We all had a wonderful time.

PLAYGROUND GAMES

Exploring The PAST & PRESENT

Mrs Simpson-Lee and 1/2S have been learning about the past. Their teacher brought in an analogue record player that we used to use to play music at home before digital CDs. The stylis (needle) was made from a diamond. In the old days you could enjoy the album artwork, something that you can't do now when downloading music from iTunes. The class also learnt about the Sydney Harbour Bridge and produced a wonderful drawing.

WHAT'S NEW

WE HAVE BRAND NEW SIGNAGE FOR THE HALL LECTURN, THE MAIN OFFICE GATE STREET SIGN AND THE OFFICE FOYER.

WE ALSO HAVE A WONDERFUL NEW ABORIGINAL PAINTING FOR OUR OFFICE FOYER BY ABORIGINAL ARTIST COURTNEY GARSTANG.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY: THE LEARNING GUMTREE

Created by Aboriginal artist Courtney Garstang in consultation with Berowra Public School's Aboriginal students, this artwork honors the sacred landscape on which we learn, celebrating its natural beauty and encouraging students to care for the land as our traditional custodians have done for countless generations.

At the centre stands a learning gumtree, with roots symbolising strong community and family foundations, while the branches represent each of the seven grades students journey through in primary school. Stars depict the students, shining as they reach their full potential.

The honey ant nest symbolises a united community working toward shared goals, and the spirit feet remind us that past custodians walk with us still. Look closely to find our local totems—the stingray, wallaby, and possum.

Berowra Public School

Acknowledgement of Country

We would like to acknowledge and respect the GuriNgai and Darug peoples, their Elders past, present and emerging. We the people are all emerging custodians of these great lands and waters in which we live together.

We value our connections with the community and appreciate the gifts and beauty of mother nature as we walk together on sacred country.

We will forever care and protect this country on which we live, learn and play.

ENROL IN BAND

SENTRAL SMS ABSENCES

WHAT IS CHANGING?

Starting Term 4 2024.
SMS messages will be sent for unexplained absences at approximately 11am.

WHAT HAPPENS?

You will receive a sms message from random numbers but the messages will always have the school's name first.

WHAT DO I DO?

Respond to the message with the reason for your child's absence.

OTHER INFO

The numbers will change, no need to save it. Only reply to messages sent,
other messages won't be attached
to your child.

BE PATIENT

During the initial set up period, please be patient with any issues/concerns and email the feedback so we can adjust the process.

This fortnight's Smiling Mind focus is Positive Communication

At Home Activities

K-2

20 Second Mindful Hug Challenge

Sometimes communication can be non-verbal, which means that you don't need words to communicate. For this task, hug someone in your family tonight for a full 20 seconds. Afterwards, discuss with that person how this made you feel. Remember to mindfully listen and take turns speaking.

Stage 2

Mindful Listening Drawing

Sometimes communication can be non-verbal, which means that our body language also plays a big part in communicating. For this activity, draw what it looks like when someone is mindfully listening and when someone is not mindfully listening. For example someone who is mindfully listening might have good eye contact and someone who is not mindfully listening might be interrupting or not facing the person who is speaking. This week, think about how your body language is showing the person who is speaking that you are mindfully listening to them.

Stage 3

Mindful Conversation

Mindful communication is when you speak with intention and listen with focus and curiosity. Practise having a mindful conversation with someone in your family this week. Make sure that you are tuning in to what you are saying and listening carefully. Write about your experience afterwards: How did it feel? Was it difficult to remember to be mindful? What are some things to remind yourself of when trying to have a mindful conversation?

P&C REPORT & P&C MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

The Fair is just 2 weeks away and we can't wait! The meetings on the next 2 Wednesday evenings are to coordinate this major fundraiser for the school and please attend if you are able. Here is the sign up for the day.

Here is this week's P&C member spotlights:

Sandra
P&C President

Kirsty Chan - Fundraiser Committee

I joined the P&C about 3 years ago. I find it an invaluable line of communication between the school and the parents. It is incredibly satisfying to be part of a group that all have the same agenda - how can we make our children's school the best it can be. My favourite part of being in the P&C is helping with the decision making. We recently provided chrome books for stage 1. My son came home absolutely thrilled on the first day they were able to use them at school. I have strong beliefs that public education is underfunded by the government and unfortunately it is up to P&C volunteers to fundraise and help to try and make up this shortfall so our kids have the opportunities that they deserve.

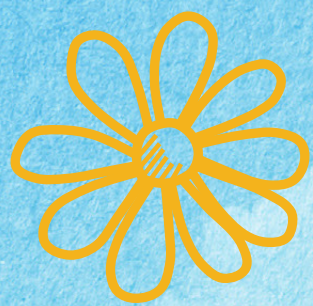

Rachel Byers - Fundraiser Committee:

I joined the P&C to foster a vibrant school spirit and create a sense of community. Understanding how demanding and stressful family life can be, I wanted to offer a break from the endless "must do" tasks and introduce some "want to do" activities.

My goal is to ensure our school hosts events that families can purely enjoy together.

Growing up in Berowra, I always felt a strong sense of community. I want my children to experience that same feeling of belonging.

Supporting Parents to Manage Children's Screen Use

Northern Sydney Local Health District, Health Promotion Service is inviting your school community to help inform the design of a screen time support package for parents/carers. Excessive screen time can impact a child's physical, social and mental health and can have negative impacts on learning and behaviour. We are seeking parents and carers to participate in an online consultation group that will help to shape the development of the screen use support package.

Please share the image attached with this newsletter with your school community to assist us in recruiting parents/carers for the consultation. Alternatively, direct parents/carers to complete this survey.

Parents! Is managing screen use a challenge?

Help us develop a screen time support package for parents and carers of primary school age children.

Participate in a one hour, online group discussion with our Northern Sydney Local Health District team.

Register your interest by 8 November by scanning the QR code.
