
YEAR 10 ENJOY A WEEK OF WORK EXPERIENCE

Year 10 Work Experience

During week 5 this term every Year 10 student at Blayney High had the opportunity to participate in the Work Experience program. Over 50 students completed the 5 day program at a work place of their choice. Work experience is one of the most valuable opportunities for students to experience a real life workplace and how it operates. Our students had the opportunity to access workplaces in Queensland, Blayney, Orange, Bathurst and all across NSW. I would like to say a massive THANK YOU to all the businesses and enterprises that hosted our students and supported this wonderful opportunity for them.

Programs like this don't happen without the dedication and hard work of our staff. So a massive THANK YOU must also go to Ms Zakaria our Careers Advisor. Ms Zakaria came to me with the idea of running the program for every student in the one week and it has been an outstanding success. Every student I have spoken to has had a great time whilst on work experience and this opportunity has opened up many doors for future employment and pathways after school.

Reminder

ALL STUDENTS WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO COMPLETE THE TEEN MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID COURSE DURING WEEKS 8 & 9 OF THIS TERM. BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR A PERMISSION NOTE ON THE PARENT PORTAL THIS WEEK. PLEASE SIGN THE PERMISSION NOTE SO YOUR STUDENT CAN PARTICIPATE IN THIS AMAZING OPPORTUNITY.

World's Greatest Shave

Year 11 student Megan Stammers is co-ordinating a fundraiser to support life changing blood cancer research. Megan has experienced Leukaemia herself and we are so proud of the amazing job she is doing to raise money for such an important cause. To help Megan raise funds Southern Cross Entertainment are generously running an ad campaign on Triple M and Hit FM in the lead up to the 24th June. Listen out for the wonderful ad about Megan and our school and contact us on 6368 2100 if you would like to make a donation.
