Athletics Carnival

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday students in Years 3-6 participated in the Athletics Carnival.

This year's participation was high with an increase in students "having a go" in all events. It was great to see everyone smiling and enjoying the activities available.

First day Term 3 for Students

From the Principal

Welcome to Week 10.

I cannot believe the term is nearly over. I have survived 10 weeks at this wonderful school. I sincerely thank the staff, students and community for supporting me and the school during Term 2. It has been so much fun and the kids have been awesome.

You all have much to be proud of and while I am not sure what will happen re future leadership, I can tell you that I will be here for the commencement of term 3. I am looking forward to working with the staff on all school improvement areas on our staff development day on Monday 21st July.

School Resumes for Students on Tuesday 22 July.
