Message from the Principal...

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to Term 4! I hope everyone had a relaxing and enjoyable holiday.

We have a busy and exciting term ahead! We have Year 5 students running for the 2026 leadership team, Kindergarten and Year 7 transitions, School Spectacular, Presentation Day, end of year reports, Carols Night, intensive swimming lessons, Year 6 Fun Day, Year 6 Farewell- to name a few.

This Wednesday, our School Spectacular dancers will have their first dance rehearsal. It's wonderful to see their enthusiasm as they begin learning their dance routine – a fantastic opportunity for creativity and teamwork.

Looking ahead to Friday of Week 2, we are combining our Grandparents Day celebrations with Loud Shirt Day. This is a special occasion where we come together to celebrate and appreciate the important role grandparents play in our lives. At the same time, Loud Shirt Day is a fundraiser and awareness event supporting children with hearing loss, encouraging everyone to wear bright, loud shirts to show their support for early intervention, to help children thrive.

We are looking forward to a productive and positive term.

Have a lovely week.

Lorelle O'Brien
