Principal's Message

Welcome to week two at Seaham Public School. We hope you have had a fantastic week. Next week we celebrate Education Week under the theme of 'Inspiring Excellence'. Please see information in today's newsletter regarding opportunities for parents, carers and community to join us at school. We would love to share the ways our teachers and staff inspire excellence in our students every single day.

High Potential and Gifted Education (HPGE) - We are excited to provide wonderful opportunities for students with high potential in the social/emotional, physical, intellectual and creative domains. Some of these opportunities include 'Film by the Water', an initiative leading students through the process of film making and performance. 'Maths Olympiad', a program involving students excelling at mathematics, individual and team opportunities in athletics and sport just to name a few. Keep an eye out for updates on some of these fantastic opportunities.

Zone Athletics - We have a large number of athletes attending the Zone Athletics carnival at Maitland Athletics Centre tomorrow. Thank you to Mr Bennett for his organisation. Mr Eagleton will also be attending to support the carnival and our students. Congratulations students for your achievements so far and best of luck tomorrow.

Community PBL - Well done to Mia who is this week's worthy Community PBL award recipient. Check out the reason attached to Mia's photo. We are very lucky to have Mia at Seaham.

Mia consistently upholds the Seaham Public School PBL values of being a respectful, responsible learner. Mia's care for others is a credit to her, and she is respected by the whole Seaham School community. Mia often can be seen hand in hand with a younger student guiding and helping them in some way. We are very proud of you Mia.

NCCD

Dear parents, guardians and carers

Re: Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (NCCD)

Every year, all schools in Australia participate in the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability (NCCD). The NCCD process requires schools to identify information already available in the school about supports provided to students with disability. These relate to legislative requirements under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 and the Disability Standards for Education 2005, in line with the NCCD guidelines (2019).

Information provided about students to the Australian Government for the NCCD includes:

- year of schooling
- category of disability: physical, cognitive, sensory or social/emotional
- level of adjustment provided: support provided within quality differentiated teaching practice, supplementary, substantial or extensive.

This information assists schools to:

- formally recognise the supports and adjustments provided to students with disability in schools
- consider how they can strengthen the support of students with disability in schools
- develop shared practices so that they can review their learning programs in order to improve educational outcomes for students with disability.

The NCCD provides state and federal governments with the information they need to plan more broadly for the support of students with disability.

The NCCD will have no direct impact on your child and your child will not be involved in any testing process. The school will provide data to the Australian Government in such a way that no individual student will be able to be identified – the privacy and confidentiality of all students is ensured. All information is protected by privacy laws that regulate the collection, storage and disclosure of personal information. To find out more about these matters, please refer to the Australian Government's Privacy Policy (https://www.education.gov.au/privacy-policy).

Further information about the NCCD can be found on the NCCD Portal (https://www.nccd.edu.au).

If you have any questions about the NCCD, please contact the school.

Kind regards

Craig Partridge

Nutrition for Learning

Did you know that what children eat throughout the day can affect how they learn?

A balanced diet provides the nutrients children need to concentrate, solve problems, remember new information and stay energised throughout the school day.

Help your child fuel their brain by:

- Starting the day with a healthy breakfast
- Enjoying regular meals and healthy snacks from the five food groups
- Eating a variety of colourful vegetables and fruit
- Drinking plenty of water to stay hydrated, especially at school

Healthy eating isn't about having a perfect diet — it's about making small, everyday choices most of the time. Every nutritious meal and snack helps children grow, learn and thrive.
