School Representation Expectations

Yass High School has high expectations for all students. The school has proven success in academic, sporting, creative and cultural fields. It is a privilege to represent Yass High School and the community, and therefore all students are expected to uphold our core values aligned to the Yass High School Way – Respect, Responsibility and Honesty.

To represent Yass High School, you must be deemed by the school to be consistently meeting the following 7 expectations:

1. Students consistently demonstrate respectful behaviour by being polite, caring for all property and each other, and keeping the school environment clean.
2. Students consistently demonstrate responsible behaviour by following staff instructions, acting in a safe manner, being in the right place at the right time, and using technology appropriately. Students need to have a positive points total in the 5-week period leading up to representation. Students that are on levels, or with formal cautions, suspensions or an ongoing history of poor behaviour may not be permitted to represent the school.
3. Students consistently demonstrate commitment by striving for personal best, being ready to learn, and contributing to lessons in a positive manner. Students must maintain a school attendance rate of 80% or better. Students with an ongoing history of very poor attendance may not be permitted to represent the school.
4. Students consistently comply with the Yass High School Mobile Phone Policy.
5. Students consistently comply with the Yass High School Uniform Policy.
6. Students consistently show dedication towards their chosen representative team by being prepared and completing training sessions/rehearsals/practises.
7. Student consistently demonstrates sportsmanship by contributing to a supportive and inclusive environment that is free from intimidation, harassment or bullying.
